- See below, Administrative Charges for Cancellations and Booking Changes, for Cruise Holidays' of Las Vegas administrative fees in addition to any Cruise Line Penalty.

Passport Information

The United States may require that as early as January 1, 2008, all cruise line passengers must have a passport to re-enter the United States. For the most current information about the requirement of passports please periodically check online at www.state.gov and then click on Passports and then on Traveling to the Caribbean, Bermuda, Panama, Mexico or Canada. You can also find application forms at that site.

Travel Insurance is Strongly Recommended: Travel insurance provides protection for trip cancellation or interruption due to specified circumstances, as well as medical expense and baggage loss or damage coverage. We recommend Travel Guard insurance and a brochure is enclosed. The premium amount is included on your invoice for your information, but insurance IS NOT EFFECTIVE until the premium is separately paid by check or credit card . Travel Guard only covers pre-existing medical conditions and travel supplier defaults if paid for within 14 days of the initial trip payment (don't forget we are closed on Sundays and several Holidays), rather than at the time of final payment. Insurance is also available through the cruise line or other travel supplier. Contact us immediately if you wish to purchase the insurance now.

Agency Disclaimer and Waiver of Liability: Cruise Holidays of Las Vegas, an independently owned and operated franchise of Cruise Holidays acts solely as a general booking agent for the purpose of processing bookings and reservations with various travel suppliers. Neither Cruise Holidays of Las Vegas nor Debbie Stoller have any control over the travel suppliers, the fares charged for services, their policies and procedures, the scheduling of their services, or their methods of providing services. Therefore, neither Cruise Holidays of Las Vegas nor Debbie Stoller shall be responsible or liable, and each of them is released of responsibility and liability, for any delay, inconvenience, loss, or damage for personal or property injury, to any Passenger resulting from breach of contract or any acts or omissions on the part of any travel supplier, any cancellation of any service by a travel supplier, any refund due from a travel supplier, any terrorist activities, civil or labor unrest, mechanical or construction defects or failures, diseases, local laws, climatic conditions, or any other cause.

Administrative Charges for Cancellations and Booking Changes: Cruise Holidays of Las Vegas reserves the right to impose an administrative fee in the amount of $25.00 per person for any booking that is cancelled or changed in any manner after 10 days following the payment of a deposit to the applicable cruise line or other travel supplier (if the booking is not for a cruise). If any part of my cruise or other form of travel has been paid with a credit card issued in my name or for which I have joint authority with any other person to sign for charges, Cruise Holidays of Las Vegas is expressly authorized to process any imposed cancellation or change administrative fee as set forth herein to said credit card.
